2010 Hernando County Sheriff's Office & Emergency Management Hurricane & Safety Expo logo design contest winners are announced:

Hernando County Sheriff Richard Nugent is proud to announce that Brice Bennett age 9 is the grand prize winner of the 2010 Hurricane & Safety Expo logo contest. Brice is in the 4th grade, gifted program at Explorer K-8 and his art teacher is Roxanne Campbell.

Students from area schools participated in creating a drawing with a weather message that would be displayed on T-shirts and posters at the 2010 Hurricane and Safety Expo. Budding student artists made the Expo Committee's job tough when it came to selecting the winners from all the drawings submitted this year.

The following are winners in their grade and age category and their art work will be displayed on various Expo items. Austin Todd, age 12, 7th grade West Hernando Middle School, art teacher is Megan Woods, Breanna Wardlow age 14, 8th grade West Hernando Middle School, art teacher is Debbie Kelly, and the team of Crystal Phillips age 14, and Dalton McCullough age 15, both in 8th grade West Hernando Middle, art teacher is Debbie Kelly. Dalton McCullough and Crystal Phillips collaborated together on their drawing. Dalton stated "Crystal came up with the idea and I had the hands to draw it". Sheriff Nugent would like to thank all the students who submitted their art work in the contest and stated "they are all winners".
