Re: Robbery- CVS Pharmacy- Spring Hill

Date: August 26, 2010

Case#: 2010-32116

Offense – Commercial Armed Robbery
Location – CVS Pharmacy located at 11115 Spring Hill Dr. Spring Hill
Date – 8/26/2010 Time – 0236-0238 Hrs

Hernando County Deputies responded to a call of a robbery at the CVS Store at 11115 Spring Hill Dr. Employees of the store told deputies that a male entered the front entrance to the store at 0236 Hrs. The male (suspect) is described as a white male, age is estimated to be 25 to 30 years, approximately 6 ft tall, approximately 185 lbs, has either blue or green eyes, possibly short dark hair. The male was wearing a white hooded sweat shirt with a black patterned design covering it, dark colored pants, possibly black jeans and black shoes. The male had a white colored mask covering the lower part of his face from the nose downward. The hood of the sweat shirt covered the top of the male's head and was pulled down to just above his eyes. The male was also wearing white cloth gloves over his hands and armed with a small knife.

After entering the store, the male went directly to the pharmacy located at the rear of the store, stepped over the pharmacy gate, and confronted the pharmacist demanding "Oxy's". The suspect displayed a small knife to the pharmacist as he made his demand. The suspect took prescription medication off the shelves and then fled from the store the same way he entered. He was last seen heading east then north from the store. A search of the area was conducted but the suspect was not located.
