Re: Public Service Aide Program- Volunteer Opportunities

Date: May 11, 2011

Sheriff Al Nienhuis announces an exciting volunteer opportunity for all citizens. The Hernando County Sheriff's Office Citizen Volunteer Corps is now accepting applications for the Public Service Aide Program. The Public Service Aide Program (PSA) is an exceptional volunteer opportunity that provides a higher level of training and deep sense of satisfaction due to its extensive nature of service. PSA's serve on patrol by handling minor calls for service from citizens and by assisting patrol deputies in non-emergency cases.

Applications are available in person at the main office in Brooksville and at the Sheriff's District II office on Forest Oaks Blvd. Fourteen citizens will be selected for the first PSA Academy class to begin in July, 2011.
