RE: Y.E.S. "Bikers for Kids" Motorcycle Run

DATE: January 13, 2012

The Hernando County Sheriff's Office Youth Education Services, Inc. (Y.E.S) will be hosting the First Annual "Bikers for Kids" Motorcycle Run. The ride begins on Saturday, March 10, 2012 at the Hernando County Sheriff's Office, located at 18900 Cortez Blvd, Brooksville.

Kick-Stands are promptly up at 10:30 a.m. and your feet won't hit the ground until the 40 mile ride ends at the Bar-B-Q at Barney's located at 14430 Cortez Boulevard. At the BBQ, a DJ will keep you entertained while you have a chance to win raffle prizes and participate in a 50/50 drawing.

Registration fee is $20 per rider, $20 per passenger. You may pre-register by printing a registration form available on our website at www.hernadosheriff.org and mailing in the check and form to the Hernando County Sheriff's Office. Registration on the day of the ride will be open between 8:30 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. at the Sheriff's office. The Bike Run is limited to first 250 bikers. All Riders and passengers must sign an AMA waiver!

Proceeds from the run will benefit Y.E.S. (Youth Education Services), which is a non-profit organization that was formed to provide programs for our growing youth population. The programs teach our youth the importance of being good citizens and making the right choices throughout life.

If you have any questions in reference to the route of the Bike Run, please contact Art Waskey at awaskey@hernadosheriff.org

For information on registration or if you would like to make a donation, please call the Hernando County Sheriff's Office, Sue Raffensperger at 352-754-6830, ext. 53660.
