Re: Son steals his Deceased Mother's Identity

Date: January 20, 2012

Case Number: 2011-44039 & 2012-02231

Victim:

Ruth Ann Toland, DOB: 09/20/1941 (deceased as of 11/30/2011)

Suspect(s):

Dean A. Webb, DOB: 08/06/1971
13230 Montour Street
Brooksville, Florida

After Ruth Ann Toland passed away on November 30, 2011, one of her sons, Theaker Toland Jr., went to his deceased mother's property, located at 13230 Montour Street on 12/20/2011, where his brother, Dean Webb, was residing. Mr. Toland checked the mailbox and discovered that someone had opened a Capital One credit card account in his deceased mother's name. Mr. Toland contacted Capital One and learned the card was applied for after his mother passed away, indicating that someone used her personal identification information without her permission for the purpose of financial gain through the credit card.

Contact was made with Capital One, and it was confirmed the application was completed on 12/02/2011 and mailed from 13230 Montour Street. It should be noted that the only person residing at this residence during the time frame in question was Dean Webb. A copy of the credit card application was obtained by the detective who verified that Ruth Ann Toland's name, date of birth, social security number and address were used to complete the application. The primary phone number listed on the application was Dean Webb's personal cellular phone number and the signature of Ruth Ann Toland's name on the application was consistent with previous signatures of Ruth Ann Toland's name done by Dean Webb.

During an interview with detectives, Dean Webb later admitted to using his mother's personal identification information after she passed away, with the intent to obtain and use a credit card in her name. He was subsequently transported to the Hernando County Jail. At the time of the arrest Dean Webb was on active felony probation in Hernando County; therefore, he was also charged with Violation of Probation.
