Re: Woman Crashes Vehicle into Spring Hill House Following Medical Episode

Date: November 14, 2018

On 11-14-18 at 8:08 a.m., Hernando County Sheriff deputies responded to 9320 Northcliffe Blvd. in reference to a driver who had crashed their vehicle into an unoccupied home.

When deputies arrived on scene they found the driver, Jessica Rose Julbe W/F DOB/12-19-79, trapped inside of her vehicle.

The vehicle had come to rest inside the master bedroom of the home.

Julbe, of Spring Hill, appeared to have suffered from a medical episode as she was driving westbound on Northcliffe Boulevard.

Julbe's vehicle struck a mailbox and a street sign prior to crashing into the house.

Julbe was transported by ambulance to Bayonet Point Medical Center as a precaution. Julbe only sustained minor injuries as a result of the crash.
