Re: Update 1 - Missing Endangered Adult - John Wesley Biggs

Date: July 29, 2019

Update #1

John Wesley Biggs is still listed as missing.

Biggs has had no contact with the HCSO or his caregiver, and the HCSO has not received any information from citizens regarding his whereabouts or possible reported sightings.

Detectives received surveillance footage of Biggs as he was leaving the area of the YMCA on Mariner Boulevard, and he does look different than the photos that were first provided to the HCSO for distribution.

Please see the two new photos of Biggs.

If you have seen John Biggs or know his current whereabouts, please call the Hernando County Sheriff's Office at 352-754-6830 or your local law enforcement agency. Thank you.

If you would like to remain anonymous – Please call Hernando County Crime Stoppers at 1-866-990-TIPS (8477) or submit your tip via the internet at <http://www.hernandocountycrimestoppers.com> . You will remain anonymous and also be eligible for a reward up to $3,000 cash!

The Office of Sheriff:

The Office of the Sheriff is established by the Florida Constitution. As a constitutional officer, the Sheriff has the exclusive authority to administer his or her agency and is responsible for preserving the peace throughout the entire county, carrying out the laws of the state, the orders of Florida courts, and the ordinances of the Board of County Commissioners. The Sheriff is the chief law enforcement and correctional officer of the county.

Sheriff Al Nienhuis was initially appointed as the Sheriff of Hernando County by the Governor in January of 2011. He was then elected by the people of Hernando County in 2012, and remains accountable to them.
