ORIGINAL INFORMATION – 11-12-2021

The Hernando County Sheriff's Office is requesting assistance from our media partners and the community in locating a MISSING ENDANGERED ADULT.

Kyle Feeney sent text messages to a former girlfriend, indicating he planned to commit self-harm with a firearm. The last text he sent was on 11-09-21, just after midnight.

Deputies made numerous attempts to locate Feeney at the addresses provided by the former girlfriend, meeting with negative results. Deputies also responded to Feeney's mother's residence, in case he was staying there or she knew his whereabouts. Again, deputies met with negative results.

Feeney is known to drive several vehicles; however, the former girlfriend was unable to provide a description of any of those vehicles. Feeney does not have a valid driver's license. The only vehicle registered to Feeney is a 1983 Toyota Celica/Supra (orange) bearing Florida tag/F81WQR; however, the tag expired in 2003. It is unknown if the Toyota is a functioning vehicle.

Feeney is possibly armed with an unknown type firearm. Please do not approach. Call 9-1-1 or your local law enforcement agency if you see him or know his whereabouts.

The Office of Sheriff:

The Office of the Sheriff is established by the Florida Constitution. As a constitutional officer, the Sheriff has the exclusive authority to administer his or her agency and is responsible for preserving the peace throughout the entire county, carrying out the laws of the state, the orders of Florida courts, and the ordinances of the Board of County Commissioners. The Sheriff is the chief law enforcement and correctional officer of the county.

Sheriff Al Nienhuis was initially appointed as the Sheriff of Hernando County by the Governor in January of 2011. He was then elected by the people of Hernando County in 2012, ran unopposed in 2016, and remains accountable to them.
