Re: Spring Hill Man Charged with Attempted Murder of his Adult Brother – 2024-001180869

Date: June 19, 2024

On 06-18-2024 at approximately 5:19 a.m., the Hernando County Sheriff's Office Emergency Operations Center received a 9-1-1 call in reference to a shooting that had just occurred on Stillwater Avenue in Spring Hill.

The suspect, Navor Mora DOB/03-16-2000, called 911 to report he had just been involved in an argument with his older adult brother where he ended up shooting him.

Upon arrival, deputies rendered aid to the injured victim. The victim was taken to a local trauma center for treatment of his injuries. The victim is expected to make a full recovery.

Post Miranda, Mora advised he was in his bedroom when the victim slid a note under his door calling him a bum and that he needed to get a job.

Mora advised he was angered by the note so he got dressed and holstered his firearm to go confront his brother. When Mora located his brother, Mora said he punched his brother in the chin.

A female witness advised she attempted intervene during the altercation at which time Mora fell on top of her. She further advised after Mora fell, he immediately began firing his gun, striking the victim multiple times. Mora told investigators he was not attempting to kill his brother.

Following questioning Mora was arrested on a charge of Attempted First Degree Homicide. He was transported to the Hernando County Detention Center where he is being held without bond.
