Re: Vice & Narcotics Search Warrant – Prostitution Enforcement Operation

Date: October 31, 2025

On 10-30-2025, the Hernando County Sheriff's Office Vice and Narcotics Unit, with assistance from the Florida Department of Health, conducted an undercover operation targeting illegal prostitution activity occurring at multiple massage parlors throughout Hernando County.

During this operation, undercover detectives entered various massage establishments to receive lawful massage services from individuals represented as licensed massage therapists.

During two separate sessions at different locations, the massage therapists offered to perform unsolicited sexual acts in exchange for money. These actions constitute violations of Florida State Statute 796.07 — (Prohibiting prostitution and related acts).

Following the unlawful offers, detectives detained and arrested the suspects without incident. Simultaneously, Department of Health representatives on scene verified that individuals performing massages were properly licensed in accordance with state regulations.

The following individuals were arrested:

Chunxiang Jia DOB 09/24/1967

- Arrested at Asian Massage Spa Brooksville, 7370 Broad Street, Brooksville
- Charge: Offering to Commit Prostitution

Tang Yanlin DOB/05-22-1974

- Arrested at Oriental Natural Massage, 5135 Commercial Way, Spring Hill
- Charge: Offering to Commit Prostitution

Additionally, upon arrest, it was discovered that Tang Yanlin was in the United States illegally. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) placed a detainer on her following her arrest.

The Hernando County Sheriff's Office remains committed to safeguarding the community and ensuring all businesses, including massage establishments, operate in full compliance with state law and maintain lawful, professional standards.
