Re: Ridge Manor Man Arrested for Violation of Sex Offender Reporting Requirements – 2024-00125115

Date: April 5, 2024

On 04-04-2024, Sex Offender Anthony John Ciccotelli/DOB 03-05-1973, was arrested for Failure to Comply with Sex Offender Reporting Requirements, as required by Florida State Statute.

A review of Ciccotelli's registration history, on 04-02-24, revealed the required registration for March 2024 had not been completed. Detective Marcacci attempted contact with Ciccotelli at his residence in Talisman Estates (Hernando County), but met with negative results.

An arrest warrant for Ciccotelli was then authored for this violation.

Later the same day, Detective Marcacci received notification, from Department of Corrections Probation and Parole, that a tampering alert had been received from the GPS ankle monitor worn by Ciccotelli as a condition of his probation. At this time, it was suspected that Ciccotelli may have absconded from his probation requirements.

On 04-04-24, detectives received credible information on Ciccotelli's whereabouts, at another residence in Ridge Manor. Detective Marcacci was able to locate Ciccotelli immediately upon arrival.

Ciccotelli was placed under arrest without incident and charged as follows:

- Failure to Comply with Sex Offender Reporting Requirements
- Tampering with Electronic Monitoring Device
- Violation of Probation on original charge of Simple Battery

Ciccotelli was transported to the Hernando County Detention Center, where he is currently being held without bond.
