Re: SENTENCING UPDATE – Weeki Wachee Woman Charged in Shooting Death of Man – 2023-12740

Date: June 10, 2024

On 06-06-2024, Gabrielle Bohn DOB/08-16-2002 plead guilty in Circuit Court to a charge of Manslaughter by Culpable Negligence. Bohn was sentenced to serve 15 years in the Florida Department of Corrections followed by 10 years of probation following her release.

Original information

On 04-20-2023 at 1:12 p.m., the 9-1-1 dispatchers at Hernando County Sheriff's Office Emergency Communications Center received a call from a woman who advised she was currently doing chest compressions on a male victim who was shot.

Deputies along with Hernando County Fire Rescue & Emergency services arrived at the residence on Nordica Road in Weeki Wachee within minutes, where they continued lifesaving measures.

The male victim was transported to a local hospital where he was then flown by a medical helicopter to an area trauma center for additional treatment.

The victim eventually succumbed to his injuries.

As a result of their investigation, detectives learned the victim was lying in bed with Gabrielle Bohn DOB/08-16-2002, when he was shot. Deputies on scene advised overhearing Bohn make concerning statements about accidentally shooting the victim while the victim was being moved to the ambulance.

A witness told investigators she was in another room when she heard a loud bang. When she went to the victim's room, she observed Bohn holding the victim. The witness, who is a nurse, told Bohn to start CPR while the witness called 9-1-1. The witness then took over doing chest compressions from Bohn.

Bohn provided conflicting statements to investigators about how and why the victim was shot. Bohn did maintain the shooting was an accident, and “she did not mean to shoot him.”

Bohn was arrested on a charge of Culpable Negligence and was transported to the Hernando County Detention Center where she is being held in lieu of a $10,000 bond.
